PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Hanmi Financial Corporation (the “Company”) is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2019 (“Form 10-Q”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because the Company and its auditor are evaluating the classification of a single $40.7 million credit relationship (comprised of a $28.0 million construction loan and a $12.7 million business loan) and the related adjustment to the allowance for loan and lease losses that could affect the financial statements to be included in such Form 10-Q, as well as a possible internal control deficiency primarily relating to construction lending, which may affect prior periods.

If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes

No

- (3) It is anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes

No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Although the registrant has not completed its financial statement closing and review process for the period ended June 30, 2019, and its financial statements have not been compiled, reviewed or examined by an independent auditor, the registrant anticipates an increase in its allowance for loan and lease losses and a decrease in net income as of and for the period ending June 30, 2019 as compared to the corresponding date and period in 2018. At this time, the registrant preliminarily anticipates net income of approximately $17.4 million for the six months ending June 30, 2019, which gives effect to a provision for loan and lease losses of $17.9 million. The resulting provision for loan and lease losses is primarily due to determining the aforementioned credit relationship was impaired and placing it on nonaccrual status. The allowance for loan and lease losses is anticipated to be approximately $49.4 million at June 30, 2019, which includes an approximate $15.7 million specific allowance for the single credit relationship described above. The preliminary financial information included herein is subject to change based on the completion of the financial statement closing and review process for prior periods being performed by the registrant and its auditor.

Certain statements in this Form 12b-25 constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements about the timing for filing the Form 10-Q and the changes that might be made to the Company's financial statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
